Description	The Departments of Commerce, Commerce (Computer Applications), and Business Administration jointly organized the Association Meeting for Pongal Celebration for the academic year on 10 January 2026, from 12.50 p.m. to 1.30 p.m. The meeting was presided over by Ms. M. Julie, Head of the Department of Commerce, and witnessed active participation from UG I, II-, and III-year students, PG I and II-year students, along with faculty members. The meeting commenced with a warm welcome address by Ms. M. Julie, who emphasized the importance of student involvement in departmental and cultural activities. She outlined the objectives of the association meeting and encouraged students to actively participate in organizing events that promote cultural values and teamwork. A major focus of the session was the planning and organization of the Pongal celebration. The Head of the Department highlighted the cultural and traditional significance of Pongal, stressing the importance of celebrating indigenous festivals to foster unity, cultural awareness, and a sense of belonging among students. Various aspects of the celebration—such as decorations, traditional attire, preparation of traditional Pongal, and cultural activities—were discussed in detail. Students were encouraged to share creative ideas and actively involve themselves in the planning process. Responsibilities were proposed to be distributed among UG and PG students to ensure effective coordination and smooth execution of the event. Ms. M. Julie also emphasized the importance of discipline and decorum during the celebrations. Students were instructed to strictly adhere to college rules and regulations while participating in cultural activities. Special emphasis was placed on maintaining a clean and eco-friendly campus, with instructions to avoid plastic usage and ensure proper waste disposal throughout the event. Further, the students were motivated to work collaboratively and develop leadership and organizational skills by taking responsibility for various segments of the celebration. The Head of the Department assured continuous support from faculty members and encouraged teamwork, cooperation, and mutual respect. Towards the conclusion of the meeting, an interactive session was held, during which students shared suggestions and expressed their willingness to contribute to the Pongal celebration. The enthusiasm and proactive involvement of the students were appreciated, and assurance was given that their ideas would be incorporated into the final event plan. The meeting concluded on a positive and enthusiastic note. Overall, the association meeting served as an effective platform for planning the Pongal celebration, strengthening student–faculty bonding, and promoting cultural values, leadership, and collaborative learning within the departments.
