

ACTIVITY-I

Mathematics Association is also another important learning resource. Suggested Mathematician of learner's thought processes as of the mathematics teaching. Math association are to be viewed from two angles a learning resource and as a place to engage learner's in extracurricular activities. It is a group of individuals getting together to organize events, discussion, debate on various topics pertaining to mathematics, seminar, study tours, quiz programme, conduction of exhibition etc., ultimately math association help learner's in developing interest and motivation in mathematics learning.

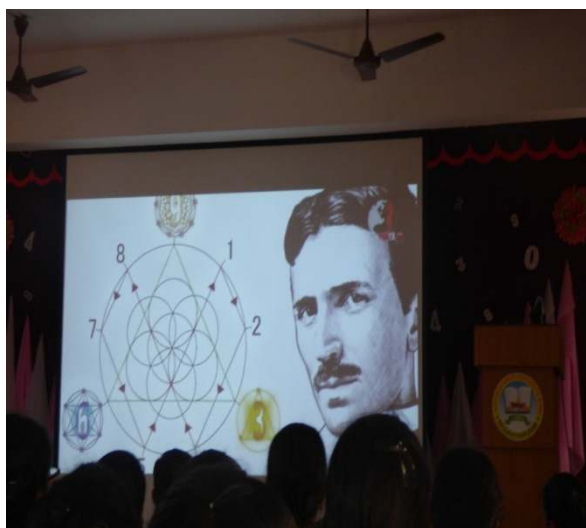

On 21st July 2016, we conducted on Inauguration of Math Association was held in Auxilium College of arts and science for women, Regunathapuram.

The Programme was started with the prayer song, welcome address was given by Assistant Professor D.Dayana Roselin, Chief guest Rev.Sr.Dr.P. Selvarani and Secretary lighted the Kuthu vilakku and the Rev.Sr. Siria Pushpam, the secretary honored the chief guest by shawl, Rev.Sr.M. Sebasti Jeya Pushpa, Head of the Department presented the memento to the chief guest.

A special lecture on "Role of mathematics in the development of society". The special lecture was very useful and very interesting to the students and students learn many tricks from this special lecture. Students were beneficated in this lecture.

F. Anusia Mary from II M.sc Mathematics was selected as an Association leader and M.Rifaya Saliq from III B.sc Mathematics was selected as an Assistant Association leader.

Assistant Professor K.Sumithra gave the vote of thanks to all. Finally the invites are requested to rise for National Anthem. The function was a grand success and ended fruitful for the students.

ACTIVITY-II

“Mathematics is not about numbers, equations, computations or algorithms,
It is about understanding “. -William Paul Thurston.

Mathematics Association of Auxilium College of Arts and Science for Women conducted a Quantitative Aptitude Test on 6th October February 2017 for improving the art of dealing with numbers amongst students.

Around 250 students participated in this test. The question paper was framed in such a way that it would increase their reasoning ability. The students were enthusiastically answering the questions.

Assistant Professor Sr. M. Pushpa, Head of the Department was a judge. Among all the students 5 were selected and Head of the department encouraged them with prizes.

ACTIVITY-III

“Mathematics is the art of giving the same name to different things”

-Henri Poincare.

Mathematics Association meeting was held on 16th February 2017, to create an interest among students how to applying “Mathematical in daily life”.

Power Point Presentation have been presented regarding “Mathematical for daily life “ by 3 students from II M.sc Mathematics and “Mathematics in Nature” by 5 students from III B.sc., Mathematics.

She explained usage of mathematical logarithms and equations in day to day life with the importance of mathematics in growing life and importance of mathematics in the nature and it importance.

One of our Staff Assistant Professor. D. Dayana Roselin, Department of mathematics was a judge. Assistant Professor Sr. M. Pushpa, Head of the Department to encouraged Students and distributed the prizes to all the participants.

