Description	The inauguration of the Mathematics Association at Auxilium College of Arts and Science for Women took place on June 21, 2023. The primary goal of the Mathematics Association is to foster interest among students and to make the scientific temperament and logic of mathematics integral parts of their lives. Miss S. Hema took on the role of association leader, with Miss K. Deepika serving as the assistant association leader. Following their appointments, the leaders pledged, "We will make the scientific temperament and logic of mathematics the norm of our life. We will organize programs to stimulate a thirst for discovering new solutions, new methods, and new ways to promote interest in mathematics among our peers." Rev. Sr. V. Santhiagu Teresal then provided motivation, emphasizing the importance of leadership qualities. She addressed the students: "Dear students, in today's world, which is marked by a pursuit of pleasure, position, and power, along with a thirst for war and violence, and the degradation of feminine qualities and values, you are called upon to assume the full responsibility of being leaders at Auxilium College."

IIC CELEBRATION ACTIVITY

Activity Name	NATIONAL YOUTH DAY
Date of Activity	12.01.2024
Mode of Conduct	Offline
Time	One Day
Participants (offline)	Students: 184 Faculty: 07
Description	Auxilium Institution's Innovation Council (AIIC) at Auxilium College of Arts and Science for Women, Regunathapuram, celebrated "National Youth Day" on January 12, 2024. This event commemorates the birth anniversary of the esteemed Indian saint and philosopher, Swami Vivekananda. Youth represents a pivotal segment of the nation, leading it forward; hence, they are chosen as the primary recipients to be inspired by Swami Vivekananda's ideas and ideals. To mark the occasion, AIIC, in collaboration with the Department of Mathematics, organized a speech competition aimed at imparting the wisdom, inspiration, and brilliance encapsulated in Swami Vivekananda's philosophy and teachings to the youth of India. The speech competition was overseen by Ms. Sumithra, NIRF Coordinator, under the astute guidance of Dr. Santiagu Theresal, Vice President of AIIC. The competition participants, comprising approximately 184 students from various disciplines, were evaluated by Prof. Allirani, the Convener of AIIC, and Dr. Sangeetha, MoE Certified Innovation Ambassador, based on four criteria: Content, Voice modulation, Presentation skills, and Audience engagement. Certificates were awarded to the top three winners and all other participants. In addition to the speech competition, AIIC organized a volleyball sports activity aimed at invigorating the energy of the youth and fostering life skills such as teamwork, leadership, accountability, patience, and self-confidence to equip them to confront life's challenges. The sports activity was coordinated by Prof. Megala, the Physical director of Auxilium College of Arts and Science for Women. Overall, the event successfully achieved its objective of instilling Swami Vivekananda's ideas and teachings among the students, with a focus on encouraging and inspiring the esteemed youth of India.

Date of Activity	January 12, 2024
Mode of Conduct	Offline
Time	9.30AM to 2.30 PM
Participants (offline)	Faculty: 8 Students: 195
Description	The celebration of Pongal at Auxilium College of Arts and Science for Women on January 12, 2024, beautifully showcased the rich cultural heritage and communal spirit of Tamil Nadu. The campus came alive with students and staff dressed in traditional sarees and the grounds adorned with vibrant Rangoli, creating an atmosphere that paid homage to tradition and fostered a strong sense of community among the participants. The ceremony was inaugurated by Secretary Rev. Sr. Magnificat, Principal Rev. Sr. M. Sebastia Jeya Pushpam, Rev. Sr. Santiago Theresal, and other sisters from the community, who together lit the firewood, marking the beginning of the festivities. This act highlighted the festival's significance and the value the institution places on cultural heritage. The presence of Rev. Fr. Aro Jesuraj as the chief guest further emphasized the festival's cultural importance and provided an educational perspective on such celebrations, offering students a deeper insight into Tamil culture and traditions. A key feature of the festival was the interactive component where the Department of Mathematics prepared Pongal together. This activity reflected the communal aspect of the harvest festival, where sharing and togetherness are central themes. Additionally, the interdepartmental Pongal competition provided a platform for showcasing talent and creativity, further enriching the cultural tapestry of the celebration. The event concluded with the announcement and rewards for the best Pongal presentations, judged by three external judges—Mrs. Murugeshwari, Mrs. Meenakshi, and Mrs. Rubi from Government Higher Secondary School, Regunathapuram. This underscored the importance of creativity and innovation within the framework of traditional celebrations, leaving participants with a sense of pride and accomplishment.

UG & PG STUDENTS' EDUCATIONAL TOUR TO MADURAI

Name of the Activity	Industrial Visit to Madurai
Date of Activity	02.04.2024
Place	Meenakshi Amman Temple, Thirumalai Nayakkar Mahal, Kalaingar Centenary Library
Participants	Students: 49 Faculty : 07
Description	The Department of Mathematics at our esteemed institution organized an enriching and educational tour for the final year undergraduate and postgraduate students, providing a blend of cultural, historical, and leisure experiences. This report encapsulates the details, experiences, and outcomes of the tour to Madurai, conducted on 2nd April 2024. Objective: The primary objective of this tour was to broaden the educational horizons of the students, exposing them to the rich cultural heritage and historical significance of Madurai, thereby complementing their academic learning with real-world knowledge. Participants: The tour saw enthusiastic participation from the department, comprising: 49 Students: Final year undergraduates and postgraduates.7 Faculty Members: Including professors and departmental staff. Itinerary and Experiences: The group embarked on their journey in the early hours of the morning at 3:00 AM on 2nd April 2024, aboard a comfortable tourist bus specifically arranged for this educational tour. Upon reaching Madurai at 7:30 AM, the group refreshed and enjoyed a hearty breakfast, gearing up for the day's activities. Educational Visits Meenakshi Amman Temple: The tour commenced with a visit to the iconic Meenakshi Amman Temple, a masterpiece of Dravidian architecture and a pivotal center of Tamil culture. Students marveled at the intricate carvings, towering gopurams, and the historical significance of the temple, gaining insights into religious and architectural history.

Thirumalai Nayakkar Mahal: Next, the group explored the Thirumalai Nayakkar Mahal, a testament to the architectural prowess of the Nayak Dynasty. The fusion of Dravidian and Islamic architecture, along with the grandeur of the palace, provided students with a glimpse into the historical and cultural amalgamation that characterizes Madurai.

Kalaiggar Centenary Library: The visit to the Kalaiggar Centenary Library was particularly enlightening for the students, offering them access to a vast repository of knowledge. This visit underscored the importance of literature and continuous learning, enriching the academic spirits of the participants.

Wet Park Visit: After the educational visits, the group headed to a renowned wet park in Madurai. This provided an ideal setting for relaxation and leisure, allowing students and faculty to enjoy various wet rides. It was a unanimous reflection that visiting the wet park before lunch was a delightful choice, adding a refreshing break to the day's schedule. The day concluded with the group starting their journey back at 7:30 PM, filled with joyful experiences and memories. On the way, we had the joy of visiting our new college Auxilium College, Chittampatti, and refreshing ourselves. The return to the college campus was marked by a safe arrival at 11:30 PM on the same day. The Department of Mathematics extends its heartfelt gratitude to all the students, faculty members, and administrative staff who contributed to the success of this tour. Special thanks to the tour coordinators and the management of the places visited for their hospitality and support.

Outcome: The educational tour to Madurai was a resounding success, achieving its objective of providing a holistic educational experience outside the conventional classroom setting. It fostered a sense of friendship among students and faculty, ignited intellectual curiosity, and provided a first-hand experience of Tamil Nadu's rich cultural and historical heritage.

Conclusion: This educational tour not only added a spark to the knowledge of the participants but also served as a thought-provoking journey that bridged the gap between academic learning and real-world experiences. It highlighted the importance of educational tours in fostering comprehensive learning and offered an unforgettable experience to the final-year students, leaving them with lasting memories and learning as they near the completion of their academic journey.
