ELOCUTION

DATE: 19.06.2018

VENUE: MULTI PURPOSE HALL

◆ OBJECTIVE: To increase their knowledge about Girish Karnad

On 19th June 2018, we celebrate the born day of Girish Karnad from our department Karnad literary club. Girish Karnad was an Indian actor, film director, Kannada writer, and playwright. He was a recipient of the 1998 Jnanpith Award, the highest literary honor conferred in India. For four decades, he composed plays, often using history and mythology to tackle contemporary issues. He translated his plays into English and received acclaim. His contribution to Indian writing especially in mythology is enormous. On his born day the club arranged a speech competition under the title “Girish Karnad the Indian hero of mythology”. UG and PG students actively participated in the speech competition and delivered their effective speech on Indian mythology. They took the mythical elements and events from the novels of Girish Karnad. From that competition, students had the chance to learn about Indian mythology by the instance of Grish Karnad novels.
