RAGGING-FREE CAMPUS: ENSURING STUDENT SAFETY

Activity Name	Ragging-Free Campus: Ensuring Student Safety
Date Of Activity	30.01.2025
Mode Of Conduct	Offline
Time	10.30 AM -11.30 AM
Participants	Students:217
Description	On 30th January 2025, the Department of Mathematics organized an awareness program titled "Ragging-Free Campus: Ensuring Student Safety" at Auxilium College of Arts and Science for Women. The event was graced by the presence of our esteemed Principal, Sr. Dr. M. Sebasti Jeya Pushpam, and attended by 217 third-year students. The primary objective of the program was to foster awareness about the importance of maintaining a ragging-free environment—a space where students feel secure, respected, and able to thrive academically and personally. In her address, the Principal emphasized the crucial role of the college's Anti-Ragging Committee and elaborated on the rules and regulations in place to prevent any form of ragging on campus. She firmly stated that ragging is strictly prohibited and will be dealt with sternly, reflecting the institution's zero-tolerance policy toward such behavior. The session served as a timely reminder of the importance of peer respect, responsibility, and student well-being. Students were also informed about the support systems and reporting mechanisms available to them should they experience or witness any form of ragging. The program reinforced the college's ongoing commitment to ensuring a safe, inclusive, and supportive learning environment for all.
