Topic	: Creative Commenting
Venue	: Regunathapuram

Report

Media club organized Rally for spreading awareness about social media in the theme of “Creative Commanding”. Our students gave the awareness to Regunathapuram village peoples through cards and speech “Social media enables people to spread awareness and bring justice when it is being denied. It acts as a voice of reason in society. Various social networking sites such as Face book and Twitter provide platforms to share experiences. Spreading information to the masses to bring awareness is one of the most important uses of social media. Most of these groups are started by young people who see the essence of treating everyone equally and social media as the perfect place to spread that message. Social media has become one of the biggest platforms ever in history where change can take place through popular demand”. Finally our student gave speech about media.
