Description	On the occasion of International Youth Day, the Tamil Nadu State AIDS Control Society (TANSACS) organized an Online Quiz Competition through the Red Ribbon Club (RRC) on 12th August 2024. The event aimed to educate and empower youth on vital health and social issues while promoting active participation in nation-building initiatives. The quiz covered a broad range of topics, including HIV/AIDS awareness, blood donation, tuberculosis prevention, adolescent health, public health policies, and general knowledge. This initiative encouraged students to become more informed, responsible, and health-conscious individuals. More than 100 students from Auxilium College of Arts and Science for Women, Regunathapuram, enthusiastically participated in the competition. The event was coordinated by Ms. Anitha Jenova, Red Ribbon Club Coordinator, along with the faculty team members, who guided and motivated students to take part actively. The programme proved to be highly informative and enriching, providing valuable insights into public health concerns and the importance of youth involvement in social awareness campaigns. It also strengthened the students' understanding of health promotion and inspired them to contribute to a healthier and drug-free society through responsible choices and community engagement.

Description	The Red Ribbon Club (RRC), National Service Scheme (NSS), and Exnora Club of Auxilium College of Arts and Science for Women, Regunathapuram, jointly organized an Awareness Rally and Programme on AIDS and Dengue Control & Prevention on 10th December 2024 at 10:00 a.m. The rally was flagged off by the College Secretary Sr.Magnificat in the presence of Rev. Sr. Dr. M. Sebasti Jeya Pushpam, Principal, Rev. Sr. Santiago Theresal, Vice Principal, and the Inspector of Police, Regunathapuram. Faculty members, RRC, NSS, and Exnora coordinators, along with enthusiastic student volunteers, actively participated in the rally. The participants raised slogans and carried placards to spread awareness on HIV/AIDS prevention, personal hygiene, mosquito control, and community health across the nearby village areas. Following the rally, an Awareness Programme was organized in the Media Hall of the college. The Resource Person, Mrs. M. Pushpam, ICTC Counselor, Government Upgraded Primary Health Centre, Malayur, delivered an insightful talk on the prevention, symptoms, and control measures of HIV/AIDS and Dengue Fever. The session began with a welcome address by Ms. Rithika, III B.Com and member of the Red Ribbon Club. Rev. Sr. Dr. M. Sebasti Jeya Pushpam, Principal, honored the chief guest with a shawl and delivered the presidential address, highlighting the importance of youth involvement in public health awareness and social responsibility. As part of the programme, the RRC volunteers performed a short skit depicting the causes, misconceptions, and preventive measures related to HIV/AIDS and Dengue. The performance effectively conveyed health awareness messages, especially among young women. The resource person appreciated the students' effort and further explained ways to prevent the spread of these diseases and encouraged them to be health ambassadors in their community. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks by Ms. Yasmin, III B.Com, followed by the National Anthem. The event proved to be highly informative and impactful, creating a strong sense of awareness among students and the local community about HIV/AIDS prevention, healthy living practices, and environmental cleanliness to prevent dengue.
