Description	On 05th October 2024, a massive AIDS and Dengue Awareness Rally was organized by Auxilium College of Arts and Science for Women, Regunathapuram, as part of the collaborative initiatives of the Youth Red Cross (YRC), National Service Scheme (NSS), and the Red Ribbon Club (RRC). The primary objective of the rally was to raise public awareness about the prevention, symptoms, and control of AIDS and Dengue fever, two pressing health concerns in society today. The rally was formally inaugurated by the Principal, Dr. Sr. Sebastia Jeya Pushpam, who addressed the gathering with an encouraging message on the importance of youth involvement in community health initiatives. She then flagged off the rally at 9:30 AM from the college premises, marking the beginning of a spirited awareness drive. A total of 120 students and 12 faculty members from various departments took part in the rally with great enthusiasm and social commitment. The participants marched through the main streets of Regunathapuram, holding vibrant placards, banners, and posters bearing messages about disease prevention, hygiene practices, and community responsibility. They also chanted catchy and impactful slogans that drew the attention of local residents and passersby, sparking conversations and raising awareness among the public. The rally served as a powerful platform for disseminating information about the transmission, symptoms, and preventive measures of AIDS and Dengue. It emphasized the need for early diagnosis, mosquito control, blood safety, responsible behavior, and eliminating social stigma related to these illnesses. This impactful outreach initiative not only strengthened the students' civic sense and social responsibility but also reflected the college's commitment to community engagement and public health education. The event concluded successfully with positive feedback from the local community, who appreciated the students' dedication and the college's initiative in addressing vital health issues.
