She motivated all the participants to become more aware of social happenings by reading newspapers daily and to update their knowledge for a better position in society.

Indian constitution gives certain preference to certain groups namely physically challenged persons, Scheduled Caste, and Scheduled Tribe community people to make them travel in the path of development path with others equally. THE STATUS OF WOMEN: The programme started with a formal prayer and welcome address on 18th February 2021 at 11.30 a.m. The Principal sr.Dr.P.Selvarani, Auxilium College for women, Regunathapuram presided. The chief guest was Dr.A. Palanimurugan Assistant Professor, Department of chemistry, Rajaduraisingamgovt college, Sivagangaidelivered the speech with a lot of practical examples and motivation. She felt very proud to speak in front of our college girls. Today parents are keeping girls as safely like products in the house. Girls should go for a job even after marriage to retain their rights. During the primitive stage, women only went for jobs and hunting. Women were the head of society. Women and men were called 'Janam' in Tamil which means population. Women who gave birth to janam are called 'Janavi'. After some years, due to the land ownership pattern men has become the breadwinners of the family, the status of women became low and women's education was denied by men. Contemporary women do not get proper recognition even with education. Female infanticide is still prevalent in India.

To protect the girl child the government has brought out the Pre-Conception and Pre-Natal Diagnostic Techniques (PCPNDT) Act which prevents hospitals to inform the sex of the fetus. Women should have the courage to gain their rights. Society has the thought that we are weak which makes the woman prove herself. Women can do multifaceted work. A dignity is an essential tool for development. She motivated the participants with the details of a few women achievers. The participants actively participated and the programme ended with a vote of thanks.
